

How to Teach Conversation

ELL beginners need to talk a lot to get a good handle on the language. It is easy though for a couple of students to dominate while everyone else sits around waiting. We need everyone to practice lots every class.

1. What methods are mentioned in the lecture that you can use to get students practicing conversation a lot?
2. How can we follow through with students who aren't participating?
3. What questions or concerns do you have?
