

How to Teach Reading

Phonics are great, but they are boring. We want students practicing reading actual books as soon as possible. Just be sure to stick with texts that only have sounds that they have learned.

1. How can I make sure that everyone reads during group reading time?
2. How can I create time in class to check in with students individually?
3. What questions or concerns do you have?