Lesson Outline

- Starting with a quick & easy passage, students read the passage and organize information on a graphic organizer.
- Students then turn and talk in order to share what they have written down on their graphic organizer.
- Students then listen to a grade-level passage or part of a grade-level passage.
- Students listen for the details they need to complete a new graphic organizer like the one they have already completed.
- Then students turn and talk about what they wrote on their new graphic organizers.
- Students read the passage themselves to double-check their responses.
- Finally, they can reflect on the graphic organizer in writing.
